Dear parents, carers and friends of St Michael's,

Last week, I had the great pleasure of attending our incredible Expressions performing arts evening. It was amazing to see the depth of student talent on display from across the Creative and Performing Arts. Our Hospitality staff and students provided a feast of fine food and mocktails to set the whole evening off. As well as an outstanding display of visual art, we were treated to hilarious junior drama performances, brilliant senior musical performances and a wonderful journey in dance from the 1950s to now.

I would like to thank all of the students and staff involved in this wonderful evening.

Over the weekend, Kandi McLennan competed in the schools' equestrian event at Maryborough and took out first place for Year 10. She also led St Michael's to victory with the highest average score for all of the schools involved in the competition. Congratulations to Kandi on this outstanding achievement and to all of our equestrians who have competed across 2016.

Our Year 12s will have their QCS (Queensland Core Skills) test on Tuesday and Wednesday this week and our non-QCS students will have an important Careers & Mock Interview day. We wish our year 12s all the best as they look forward toward a bright post-school future.

This week, I will be involved in interviews for our 2017 Senior Leaders and for our Assistant Principal – Staff and Student Development. I had the great privilege of hearing all 32 Senior Leader speeches and was thoroughly impressed. Our Year 11s and staff had a tough choice in voting to help to narrow these down to 22 students who will now be interviewed for our 2017 Senior Leadership positions. All of these students will be interviewed by myself and a member of either the Administration team or House Leader. Hopefully, we will be able to announce all positions before the end of term.

Nicole Hickey (our P&F President), Trevor Doyle (Area Supervisor) and I will also interview for our Assistant Principal – Staff and Student Development role later this week. I would like to thank Mrs Leonie Trueman who has been acting in this role for 2016. Mrs Trueman has done a great job, but is unable to take on this role permanently. Hopefully, our new Assistant Principal will be announced in the coming weeks.

You may be aware that we have been working with Main Roads and Ros Bates, our local MP about improving the length of the afternoon signal on the Jondique Ave traffic lights. Last week, we received confirmation that the lights will be changed to improve afternoon traffic flow from next term. We have also had confirmation that the Council will aerate our oval to apologise for taking 6 weeks longer than expected to put through the new pipes for the estate behind the College. I appreciate the support of Ros Bates MP, our Council and Main Roads in assisting our community.

It is important for parents and carers to know who they should see about various issues that may arise. Obviously, as I am overseeing all aspects of a College community with 1100 staff and students and even more parents and carers, I tend to deal with major issues (staffing, child safety, buildings, compliance, policies etc) and not the basic day to day issues. When parents and carers ring the College to discuss an issue, they will normally be put through to the person who is best placed to follow up the enquiry. A few quick examples that I hope will be helpful.

St Michael's College respectfully acknowledges that we are on the sacred lands of the Kombumerri clan of the Yugambeh people.

Queensland Core Skills test 2016
Our Year 12 students who are on a tertiary pathway will sit the QCS test this week. At an assembly last week we asked them to ‘be gold, when it is grey’; to be persistent in their collective effort to ensure that each of those sitting the test were able to demonstrate their acquirement of the common curriculum elements. In the QCS song, developed by the Year 12 students, they called on courage ‘to pull them through’. The Year 9 students presented the senior students with a wristband as shown in photos below.

Career day
For those students not sitting the QCS test, the career day on Tuesday will offer them the opportunity to engage with industry employers thereby preparing them to go into the world of work after completing their studies. Wednesday, for these vocational education students, will be a normal school day.

Senior Breakfast
Every Year 12 student is invited to the senior breakfast tomorrow and Wednesday. This is a time for students to get together and feel settled as they prepare to go into the two days of testing.

Senior Examination Block (September 6 to September 16)
All Year 11 and 12 students commence the senior assessment block on Tuesday September 6. Please note the schedule is available on the Parent Portal (Click on the link on the College website, enter log in details and select online school services). Students are required to be in full formal or sport uniform for their exam/ assessment session. Students are to be on College grounds at least 15 minutes before the starting time for an assessment. Students who are not able to attend a session through sickness must provide a medical certificate. In the case of an emergency or critical incident, the College must be contacted.

Preparation for assessment
All students should be showing the learning disposition of the self-directed and responsible learner by developing a learning schedule over this week and the coming weeks to ensure that they are fully prepared for their assessment. It is important that our learners do create a realistic and effective plan by setting out times, appropriate location and priorities. For examinations, these should include revision of classwork, textbook sections and notes on the concepts covered. As some tasks include multimodal presentations, an effective learner is encouraged to practice in front of a mirror or an audience and create palm cards.

Parent Portal
It is our hope that all parents have accessed the parent portal through instructions that have been issued in the semester one reporting package and previous newsletters. Please note that student reports and assessment calendars (select online school services) are available through this portal. At the end of this semester, student reports will only be issued digitally through the portal, consequently it is important that you have logged into the portal and created your password.

MESSAGE FROM THE COLLEGE COUNSELLOR

Teen Topics

Drugs and alcohol
A drug is any chemical compound or substance that when taken into the body changes the way we feel, the way we perceive things and the way the body works. Drugs come from a range of sources both naturally occurring and man made. There are three main types of drugs, classified according to the effect the drug has on the central nervous system. These are depressants, stimulants and hallucinogens. Common depressants include alcohol, barbiturates, cannabis and heroin. These drugs slow down the functioning of the central nervous system. Stimulants include caffeine in coffee, tea and cola drinks, nicotine in tobacco and amphetamines. Stimulants act on the central nervous system to speed up the messages going to and from the brain. Hallucinogens affect a person’s perception of things.

What to do
Your teenager is growing up in a drug taking society. And since the teenage years is a time of experimentation and testing limits it is likely your teenager will experiment with drugs. It is important to remember that while there is no approach to parenting that will guarantee a teenager will never touch either legal or illegal drugs the strongest antidote known for alcohol and substance misuse is for a teenager to feel connected to others who genuinely care for them and to have the possibility of a fulfilling life. A teenager may experiment with drugs and drinking for a number of reasons, including curiosity, boredom, peer pressure or stress or for excitement. Parents typically worry about their teenager becoming hooked on drugs. There is, however, no support for the theory that if a teenager tries a so-called soft drug, for example marijuana, that it will only be a matter of time before they progress to hard drugs such as heroin. The real threat to a teenager’s health is the use of social drugs such as tobacco and alcohol. While there is no easy way to tell if your teenager is taking drugs or abusing alcohol, signs include uncharacteristic behaviour such as outbursts of anger toward others, mood swings, significant changes in physical appearance, the disappearance of money or household items, and a sudden change to a new group of friends. If you think your teenager is taking drugs do not react immediately and jump to conclusions. Give yourself time to think through what is happening and to inform yourself about drugs. Do not exaggerate or make things up. Foster a close, open and trusting relationship with your teenager and discuss your concern at a time when you are both in a reasonable mood. Tell them of your concern for their wellbeing and try to separate their behaviour from them as an individual. Ensure the communication channels remain open and keep them connected and involved with the family. At the right time say something that opens up the subject in an easy non-threatening way such as “Is everything ok?. Lately you don’t seem to be yourself.” Reassure them by telling them that while you might not like nor accept their behaviour you will always love them and be there to support them. Encourage positive self-talk to build their self-esteem and model a healthy living lifestyle based on nutritious eating, regular exercise and caring respectful relationships within the family. Don’t try to scare your teenager off drugs. Have open and honest discussions and educate your teenager on what is likely to happen if they use drugs or abuse alcohol. Ensure they are aware of the effect on family relationships, their education and their future career prospects. Have a family rule about what is acceptable behaviour in regard to drugs and in particular to alcohol. If you remain concerned that your teenager is heavily involved in drugs, seek immediate professional advice and support from the relevant government department or specialist agency within your local community.

Please do not hesitate to contact the College Counsellors if we can assist in ensuring the wellbeing of your teenager.

Message from the HPE FACULTY

What’s going on?
Year 7, 8 and 9 HPE students have completed their final assessments. Please bring PE clothes to each lesson for the remainder of the term for practical lessons.

Year 10 HPE students are sitting their unseen essay this week. Good luck to all students.

Senior students have received their exam timetables. Please check details and direct any issues or concerns to your teachers.

Gym
Parents and students are reminded that the gym is open on a Tuesday and Thursday afternoon, 3:00pm – 4:00pm. Students are asked to bring a full change of clothes, a towel and water bottle to every gym session.

Healthy Hints
A very common mistake that many people make is to not ease into and out of their exercise. Take time to warm up before any type of exercise. When you finish your workout do not stop quickly but slow your pace gradually until you quit and then stretch at the very end.
